The Royal Canadian Legion

NEW BRUNSWICK COMMAND

*They shall grow not old,
as we that are left grow old;
Age shall not weary them,
nor the years condemn.
At the going down of the sun
and in the morning,
We will remember them.*

*Ils ne vieilliront pas comme nous,
qui leur avons survécu.
Ils ne connaîtront jamais l'outrage ni le poids de années.
Quand viendra l'heure du crépuscule et celle de l'aurore, nous nous souviendrons d'eux.*

“We Shall Never Forget”

President's Message / Le mot du président

Comrade and Friends,

One of the great things that has been happening in the past few years is the growth of Canadian interest in our Military History. Along with that there has been a non-coincidental growth in the belief that we need to remember. This growth stems from the public interest that has been piqued by the media through the coverage of major events like anniversaries - the end of World War Two or D-Day for example. This year has been no different.

In April of this year we marked the 90th anniversary of the Battle of Vimy Ridge. The major restoration of the monument raised in 1936 to commemorate that battle was also completed on that weekend and the monument rededicated. We in the Legion believe that this particular day should also be a national statutory holiday, not just for remembrance purposes but for that particular battle's role in the development of the nation. That we should always remember and say thank you.

...Remember at the going down of the Sun We Will Remember Them...

We are pleased to announce our 4th booklet honoring our service men and women, thanks to the generosity of many individuals, business and professional groups. The Royal Canadian Legion, New Brunswick Command, is once again able to provide this "Military Service Recognition Booklet", to perpetuate memory of those who served and continue to serve our Country.

Revenue generated from this production of this booklet goes to ensure that the Legion Programs for Veterans, Youth and our Seniors will continue to grow well into the future. Let us take time to remember the unselfish men and women whom continue today to serve our Country, and let us not forget those whose lives have been taken in Canada and many foreign lands. May we never forget their sacrifice.

Many great thanks to our Legion Branches and families for providing pictures contained in this booklet, also to the team at Fenety Marketing in Moncton for their excellent work and dedication in raising the funds necessary for the production of this commemorative booklet. The next production will be in the Fall of 2008.

Sincerely yours,

Mavis Cooper
Provincial President
New Brunswick Command

Chers amis et camarades,

Il y a eu une croissance au cours des dernières années dans l'intérêt que portent les Canadiens pour l'histoire militaire. Ce n'est donc pas une coïncidence que nous croyons de plus en plus que c'est important de nous souvenir. Cette croissance s'explique par l'intérêt public qui a été piqué par la couverture médiatique des grands événements comme les anniversaires de la fin de la Deuxième Guerre mondiale et le jour J par exemple. Cette année n'a pas été différente.

En avril de cette année nous avons marqué le 90e anniversaire de la bataille de la crête de Vimy. La restauration du monument élevé en 1936 pour commémorer cette bataille a été achevé et dédié à nouveau en ce week-end. Nous, au sein de la Légion croyons que cette journée particulière devrait être un jour férié, et non seulement pour commémorer mais pour souligner le rôle déterminant de cette bataille au développement de notre nation. Nous devons toujours nous souvenir et dire merci.

...Quand viendra l'heure du crépuscule et celle de l'aurore, nous nous souviendrons d'eux.

Nous sommes heureux de lancer notre 4e livret grâce à la générosité de nombreux individus, entreprises et organismes pour honorer nos hommes et femmes qui ont fait carrière dans le service militaire. La Direction Nouveau-Brunswick de la Légion royale canadienne est de nouveau en mesure de présenter un "Livret reconnaissant le service militaire" pour perpétuer le souvenir de ceux qui ont servi et continuent de servir notre pays.

Les revenus générés par la production de ce livret serviront à assurer la continuité et la croissance de programmes pour les anciens combattants, la jeunesse et les aînés dans l'avenir. Prenons le temps de nous souvenir de ces braves hommes et femmes qui servent notre pays aujourd'hui et n'oublions-pas ceux et celles qui ont donné leur vie au Canada et à l'étranger. Puissions-nous ne jamais oublier leur sacrifice.

Mille mercis à nos filiales de la Légion et aux familles pour avoir fourni les photos et aussi à l'équipe chez Fenety Marketing à Moncton pour l'excellent travail et dévouement dans la collecte de fonds nécessaire à la production de ce livret commémoratif. La prochaine édition paraîtra en automne 2008.

Cordialement vôtre,

Mavis Cooper

Blue skies, nothing but..

The CANDU® nuclear power system is good for the environment.

Plants like this one at Point Lepreau, New Brunswick, emit no acid or greenhouse gases, burn fuel efficiently and manage their own waste. There are 21 others in Canada just as environmentally considerate.

Not to mention reliability — each year CANDU reactors figure large in the Top Ten for lifetime performance. And the Point Lepreau unit is one of the best in the world.

It's reliable. It's safe . It's clean.

And that means blue skies.

Safety on Canada's roadways is improving. Since 1984, fatalities resulting from traffic collisions have decreased by 33% and serious injuries have declined by 35% despite substantial increases in the number of registered vehicles (26%) and the number of licensed drivers (34%).

However, each year over 1,400 drivers lose their driver's licence due to impaired driving in New Brunswick.

Stay safe...

IF YOU DRINK, DON'T DRIVE!

Les routes canadiennes sont de plus en plus sûres. Depuis 1984, le nombre de morts a diminué de 33 p. 100 et le nombre de blessés graves, de 35 p. 100 et ce, malgré une augmentation du nombre véhicules immatriculés (26 p. 100) et le nombre de détenteurs de permis de conduire (34 p. 100).

Toutefois, plus de 1 400 conducteurs perdent leur permis de conduire chaque année au Nouveau-Brunswick dont la cause est attribuable à la conduite en état d'ébriété.

Minister of Veterans Affairs.

I find it so satisfying to acknowledge the enduring and growing degree of respect and honour among Canadians of all ages being directed towards our veterans. It fills me with pride that I can convey to those men and women that their fellow countrymen, even those who could have no recollection of the wars of the last century, are mindful of their service and sacrifice and will never forget it.

I commend the Royal Canadian Legion, New Brunswick Provincial Command, for this recognition booklet. The Legion's role as the Keepers of Remembrance truly honours those who served our country so well..those who have made Canada what it is, a country dedicated to freedom, democracy and rule of law.

Sincerely,

The message is simple:
Trees are the answer.

The New Brunswick forest industry is proud of its sustainable management practices. Last year our companies and NB landowners planted over 60 million trees in the province. Trees absorb carbon dioxide from the atmosphere, a greenhouse gas associated with global warming.

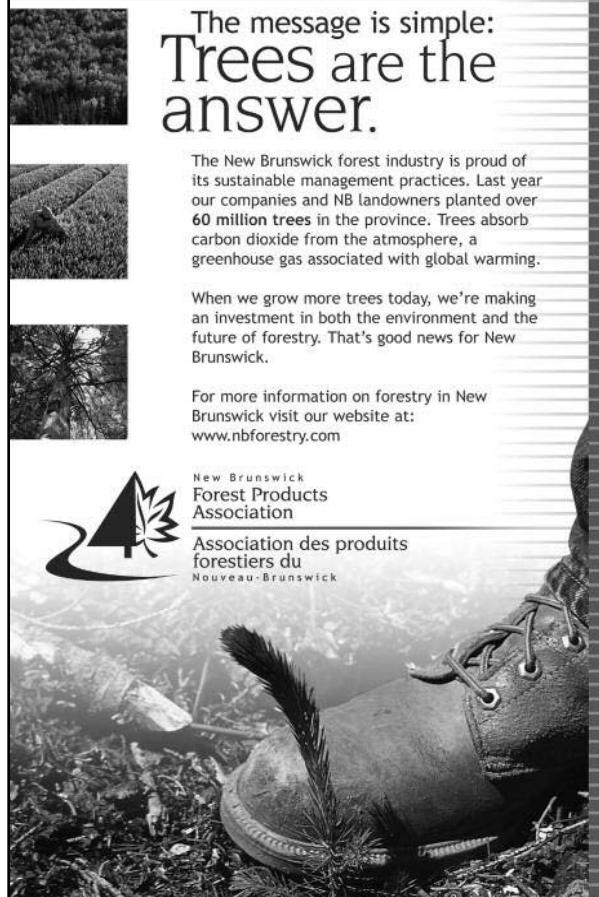

When we grow more trees today, we're making an investment in both the environment and the future of forestry. That's good news for New Brunswick.

their sacrifices.

Thank You

We Shall never forget...

After WW2 nearly 700000 veterans

Our country was faced with the challenge of assimilating these heroes back to a civilian life as quickly as possible.
Hence we were born.

Remembrance Day

Whether you're young or whether you're old,
This is a story that's been many times told.

To try and fix the damage done,
And pray for peace and the war be won.

About the men who fought and died,
To save their country's freedom and pride.

Then one day in nineteen hundred and forty-five,
The guns and planes vanished from the skies.

Many a day and many a night,
They marched in hunger, cold and strife.

Peace was proclaimed throughout the land,
All the soldiers were proud of their stand.

To crush the enemy who infected the land,
Being proud soldiers, they were taking a stand.

The ones who lived were sent back home,
And the dead were buried in a land not their own.

The days and months and years passed by,
With the sound of guns and planes in the sky.

In Flanders Field far away,
The poppies grow day after day.

The crumbled ruins of each city and town,
Where left as reminders of soldiers lost and found.

We pray that peace will always stay,
On November 11, we will honour Remembrance Day.

In Flanders Fields

*In Flanders fields the poppies blow
Between the crosses, row on row,
That mark our place: and in the sky
The larks, still bravely singing, fly
Scarce heard amid the guns below.*

*We are the Dead. Short days ago
We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow,
Loved and were loved, and now we lie
In Flanders fields.*

*Take up our quarrel with the foe:
To you from failing hands we throw
The torch; be yours to hold it high.
If ye break faith with us who die
We shall not sleep, though poppies grow
In Flanders fields.*

Laurence Binyon

For the Fallen

With proud thanksgiving, a mother for her children,
England mourns for her dead across the sea.
Flesh of her flesh they were, spirit of her spirit,
Fallen in the cause of the free.

Solemn the drums thrill: Death august and royal
Sings sorrow up into immortal spheres.
There is a music in the midst of desolation
And a glory that shines upon our tears.

They went with songs to the battle, they were young,
Straight of limb, true of eye, steady and aglow.
They were staunch to the end against odds uncounted:
They fell with their faces to the foe.

They shall grow not old, as we that are left grow old:
Age shall not weary them, nor the years contemn.
At the going down of the sun and in the morning
We will remember them.

They mingle not with their laughing comrades again;
They sit no more at familiar tables at home;
They have no lot in our labour of the day-time;
They sleep beyond England's foam.

But where our desires are and our hopes profound,
Felt as a well-spring that is hidden from sight,
To the innermost heart of their own land they are known
As the stars are known to the Night,

As the stars that shall be bright when we are dust,
Moving in marches upon the heavenly plain;
As the stars are starry in the time of our darkness,
To the end, to the end they remain.

THE FINAL INSPECTION

The soldier stood and faced God,
 Which must always come to pass.

He hoped his shoes were shining,
 Just as brightly as his brass.

"Step forward now, you soldier,
 How shall I deal with you?

Have you always turned the other cheek?
 To My Church have you been true?"

The soldier squared his shoulders and said,
 "No, Lord, I guess I ain't.
 Because those of us who carry guns,
 Can't always be a saint.

I've had to work most Sundays,
 And at times my talk was tough.
 And sometimes I've been violent,
 Because the world is awfully rough.

But, I never took a penny,
 That wasn't mine to keep...
 Though I worked a lot of overtime,
 When the bills got just too steep.

And I never passed a cry for help,
 Though at times I shook with fear.
 And sometimes, God, forgive me,
 I've wept unmanly tears.

I know I don't deserve a place,
 Among the people here.
 They never wanted me around,
 Except to calm their fears.

If you've a place for me here, Lord,
 It needn't be so grand.
 I never expected or had too much,
 But if you don't, I'll understand.

There was a silence all around the throne,
 Where the saints had often trod.
 As the soldier waited quietly,
 For the judgment of his God.

"Step forward now, you soldier,
 You've borne your burdens well.
 Walk peacefully on Heaven's streets,
 You've done your time in Hell."

MEDALS

Hell, who cares for those old men at the Legion bar,
That talk so silly of past wars fought afar?
They all sound like heroes as they display a scar
And who doff their medals – most look like a star!

Well, who cares for their medals and silly talk,
And what's so important on November 11th at eleven o'clock?
When they march in silence to that flag draped rock,
And bow their heads for two minutes, like sheep in a flock.

If you had seen them in battle, they were young then too,
Who went in large numbers and returned so few;
You'd know that the prayers for the dead of their crew,
Are not for "old men with medals" but for kids just like you!

Their medals, scars and "silly" talk
and even their prayers at that flag draped rock,
Are something no one ever mock it's the price they paid for no shackles or lock!

So, maybe now, you'll give second thought to the fact "they cared", that's why they fought – but even if your cares they did not earn, for they were never sought – their lives and scars are what they paid for the liberty we've got!

EVERYDAY IS REMEMBRANCE DAY

'Twas the night before Christmas, he lived all alone,
In a one bedroom house of plaster and stone.
I had come down the chimney with presents to give,
And to see just who in this home did live.
I looked all about, a strange sight to see,
No tinsel, no presents, not even a tree.

No stocking by mantle, just boots filled with sand,
On the wall hung pictures of far distant lands.
With Medals and Badges, awards of all kinds,
A sober thought came through my mind.
For this house was different, it was dark and dreary,
I found the home of a soldier, once I could see clearly.

The soldier lay sleeping, silent, alone,
Curled up on the floor in this one bedroom home.
The face was so gentle, the room in disorder,
Not how I pictured a Canadian Soldier.
Who was this hero of whom I'd just read,
Curled up on a poncho, the floor for a bed?

I realized the families that I saw this night,
Owed their lives to these soldiers who were willing to fight.
Soon 'round the world, the children would play,
And grownups would celebrate a bright Christmas Day.
They all enjoyed freedom each month of the year,
Because of the soldiers, like the one lying here.

I couldn't help wonder how many lay alone,
One a cold Christmas Eve, in a land far from home.
The very thought brought a tear to my eye,
I dropped to my knees and started to cry.
The soldier awakened and I heard a rough voice,
"Santa, don't cry, this life is my choice".

I fight for my freedom, I don't ask for more,
My life is my God, my Country, My Corps.
The soldier rolled over and drifted to sleep
I couldn't control it, I continued to weep.
I kept watch for hours, so silent and still,
And we both shivered from the cold night's chill.

I didn't want to leave on that cold, dark night,
This Guardian of Honour, so willing to fight.
Then the soldier rolled over, with a voice soft and pure,
Whispered, "Carry on Santa, It's Christmas Day, All is Secure".
One look at my watch, and I knew he was right,
"Merry Christmas my friend, and to all a Good Night".

Written by a Peacekeeping Soldier stationed overseas.

Forget Them Not

We've lined their boots all in a row,
And amongst them stand,
The saddest scene I'll ever know,
Goodbye dear friend, goodbye!
Through mud and rain and battle blows,
We cried cursed prayers,
On blood-soaked clothes;
And from that wound his life did flow,
Please stay we begged, please stay!
There is a time that soldiers know,
When so many die,
That the pain and woe,
Is too much for the mind to hold;
Roll on your drums, roll on!
A band of brothers stand in their rows;
The empty boots still,
Where a life did grow,
Our friends have gone, no more to know;
Remember them always, remember!

The poem, High Flight, has over the years become a mantra to pilots. It is reproduced here as a tribute to, and in memory of pilots of all generations.

High Flight

Oh! I have slipped the surly bonds of earth
And danced the skies on laughter-silvered wings;
Sunward I've climbed, and joined the tumbling mirth
Of sun-split clouds - and done a hundred things
You have not dreamed of - wheeled and soared and swung
High in the sunlit silence. Hov'ring there
I've chased the shouting wind along, and flung
My eager craft through footless halls of air.
Up, up the long delirious, burning blue,
I've topped the windswept heights with easy grace
Where never lark, or even eagle flew -
And, while with silent lifting mind I've trod
The high untresspassed sanctity of space,
Put out my hand and touched the face of God.
